

Paracetamol

Prescriptions for short-term illnesses

GP practices in Leicester no longer give prescriptions for paracetamol for short-term minor illnesses such as coughs or colds.

To avoid disappointment, we ask that you do not book an appointment to request this.

If you are already prescribed paracetamol for chronic pain, this is not affected.

You can buy paracetamol from a pharmacy, or from a local supermarket for as little as 20p.

For more information, visit www.leicestercityccg.nhs.uk/prescriptions